

SCHOOL OF HISTORY, CLASSICS & ARCHAEOLOGY

The Byzantine Studies seminars take place throughout the year, on Mondays unless otherwise stated, online via Zoom from 5.15pm. Registration required.

Date	Speaker	Topic
Mon 17 Jan	Beate Böhlendorf-Arslan (Philipps-Universität Marburg)	‘Archaeological interpretation between hypothesis and evidence: some thoughts on new discoveries in the Late Antique and Byzantine city of Assos / Turkey’
Mon 31 Jan	Constantin Zuckermann (École pratique des hautes études, Paris)	‘The fiscal context of the Byzantine Farmer’s Law’
Mon 14 Feb	Vasileios Marinis (Yale University)	‘The many lives of the martyr Euphemia’
Wed 16 Feb	Matteo Martelli (Università di Bologna)	‘Alchemical equipment in Byzantine and Syriac manuscripts’ Co-hosted with the History of Science, Medicine and Technology Seminar. NB This talk will take place at 1pm.
Mon 28 Feb	Emilio Bonfiglio (Universität Tübingen)	‘Education in Late Antique and Early Mediaeval Armenia: Agency and movements of scholars and books between Armenia and Byzantium’
Mon 14 Mar	Giulia Maria Paoletti (Austrian Academy of Sciences)	‘“For happy is he who speaks to listening ears”: Paraenetic poetry in Late Byzantium’
Mon 28 Mar	Ioanna Rapti (École pratique des hautes études, Paris)	‘Viewing the history of Siwnik’ with Step’anos Orbelian, prince, bishop and historian (ca 1300)’